

AUSTIN, Tx. – Todd M. Gjevre, 49, passed away on Friday, August 30, 2013. Private viewing for family members will take place on Friday, September 6, 2013. Following the viewing, the body will be cremated in accordance with the family's wishes. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, September 14, 2013 at Hooter's, 985 S I35E, Denton, TX.

Todd M. Gjevre was born January 29, 1964, in Windom, Minnesota. Todd was a beloved husband and father. He was highly regarded by his colleagues and clients in his profession of 28 years as a carpenter. Todd was a true craftsman and artisan. He took the art of wood working to a whole new level. Todd loved to develop new interests whether it was dirt biking, wake boarding or boating with his friends and family...but his true love and passion was golf. He especially loved golfing with all his friends. It was not uncommon to find Todd and his best friend, Scott Nichols sneaking off to catch a quick 18-holes whenever they could.

Survivors include his loving wife, Renee Dette-Gjevre of San Jose, California, his son, Gunnar S. Gjevre of Wichita Falls, Texas, his aunts, Mary Ann Schumacher of Rochester, Minnesota and Barbara Aas, Bozeman, Montana, his uncle, Arthur Aas of Bozeman, Montana and numerous cousins.
